1. Rules' Highlights

Substitution area regulations about team officials

8.a What is permitted

“...However, one of the officials is permitted to move around within the substitution area, specifically in order to:

- manage the substitution of players.
- give tactical advice to players on the court and in the substitution area.
- give medical care.
- request a team time-out.
- communicate with the timekeeper/scorekeeper; this applies only to the "responsible team official" and only in unusual situations ( rule 4:6).

8.c What is not permitted

“It is not permitted for team officials or players to:

- interfere with or insult referees, delegates, timekeeper/scorekeeper, players, team officials, or spectators, by behaving in a provocative, protesting, or otherwise unsportsmanlike manner (speech, facial expression or gestures);
- leave the substitution area in order to influence the game;
- stand or move along the side line while warming up.”
