

* Rule knowledge is the basis

for good refereeing and delegate work

* Rule understanding is a must

* The right use of the rules make the difference

for good refereeing and for delegate work * and good referees use the rules, have powerful body language, personality, courage, empathy, high level of ethics and moral and high performance with motivated leadership good referees and delegates have a positive and friendly behaviour, must be objective, neutral and be calm in all situation too.

Together with the referees we are a team.
