

2008 EHF Course for Delegates in Balatonfüred / HUN

Course Targets

- To educate the new nominated Delegates for their tasks in the nearby future in the competitions organised by the EHF
- Examination on skills and motivation
- To assure a basic standard on knowledge and behaviour as an EHF Delegate
- To test the qualities of the Delegates who did not fulfil the demands during the courses which were organised during the last two seasons

Our objectives for this course:

For the Delegates:

- to increase the quality and performance of the Delegates
- to integrate this group of Delegates in the ins and outs of the tasks
- to ensure the pro active participation of the Delegates during the course

For the EHF

- increase the communication between the delegates and the EHF (Staff and CC members)
- to secure a basic standard of the qualities of an EHF Delegate
- to built further relationships between participants and the EHF

Basic idea:

- to focus on pro active discussion and participation through two way communication and the exchange of ideas and experiences, rather than sole information from the Lecturers. The Delegates should be the power behind the discussion direction.
- to identify the needs and requirements of the Delegates
- to practice Referee Observation during the matches

Communication:

- discussions must be held in a very open way
