

WHO IS A GOOD REFEREE?

WHO IS A GOOD REFEREE?

 The trouble with the referees is that they know the rules, but they don't know the tactics and strategies!

Personality:

- To able to communicate
- Leadership, serving the game
- Character, courage, style- a lot of aspects
- Social situation
- Self-control, self-confidence
- Respect to the "others" and from the "others"
- Team spirit
- Understanding the rules, tactics
- Behaviour on the court and in private life

- Characteristics of a good referee:
 - Honesty
 - Staying calm, focusing on problems
 - Patience
 - Good role-models
 - To study the style of the best
 - More challenging and realistic goals!
 - Family and job background
 - To learn and set-up!
 - Body language, eyes, voices, gestures

- Physical ability:
 - Preparation like the teams
 - Running style and paths
 - Visual ability and position on court, cooperation
 - Sportsmanlike body shape

- Mental preparation:
 - Nomination, think about his/her next match
 - Respect and working for respect
 - "I choose a positive mind"
 - Rituals before, during the matches
 - Mental training on last minutes

- Improve the handball knowledge:
 - Training, video or DVD
 - Defence, attack systems
 - Harmony with the speed and with the "heat" of the match

- Control the match:
 - Clear signals, clear information
 - Neutrality and acceptance
 - Decision competence, cooperation (selling your decision)
 - Adapt to the situation
 - Use body language, pedagogy
 - To be calm, smile
 - Correct contact with all people involved

- What do the referees find most difficult?
 - Social isolation after "bad" performance
 - Negative report from delegates
 - Media feedback
 - Spectators

Tips:

- Practice makes perfect
- To live with your mistakes
- Referee- job is enjoyable
- Be open and suggestive
- Special fitness programme
- Take care on your private life
- Be professional in every situation

THANK YOU FOR YOUR ATTENTION!