Let's have a look behind the statistics
From the outside, after a game, it's easy to be smart...

The Coach, on the other hand, needs to smart and prepared well in advance.

Through the Eyes of the Coach

What the Coach can influence with her/his experience and knowledge:

- Movements (plays)
- Systems and plans
- Team composition and players association
- Time spent on the field by players before the final
- Time played in the final by players
- Using the time-outs

Factors independent from the competencies of the coach:

- Technical faults
- Missed situations
- Luck /Bad Luck
- Referee decisions
- Injuries
